PRESS RELEASE

National Reserve Bank of Tonga: Counterfeit notes

The National Reserve Bank of Tonga has received some $20 and $50 pa'anga of the old designed notes confirmed to be counterfeit notes. These counterfeit notes lacked the following security features present in the genuine $20 and $50 pa'anga notes.

1. the water mark of the King's head which can be clearly seen when it is held up to the light, and
2. a security thread embedded in the note.

The Reserve Bank is concerned that there could be more of such $20 and $50 counterfeit notes circulating around.

The Reserve Bank has prepared a pamphlet outlining security features on a genuine pa'anga note to assist members of the public in identifying genuine pa'anga notes and counterfeits. Pamphlets are available free of charge from the National Reserve Bank or can be downloaded from the reserve bank website on www.reservebank.to

The public are hereby wanted to be alert and advised to check all notes particularly the $20 and $50 pa'anga notes before accepting them. Counterfeit notes carry zero value and will not be accepted by the banks.

The Public are urged to take any counterfeit notes to the National Reserve Bank of Tonga. Makers and distributors of counterfeits are breaking Section 59 and 61 of the Criminal Offences Act 1988, Cap 18:

Section 59

- (1) Every person who-
  - (a) makes any counterfeit currency resembling or apparently intended to resemble any of the current currency of the Kingdom of Tonga or any foreign state or country, or
  - (b) has in his possession or makes any dies or other instrument or materials intended to be used in the making of counterfeit currency, shall be liable for imprisonment for any period not exceeding 5 years.

Section 61

Every person who shall utter any currency resembling or apparently intended to resemble the current currency of the Kingdom of Tonga or of any foreign state or country, knowing such currency to be counterfeit shall be liable for imprisonment for any period not exceeding 5 years.

For further clarification or to report counterfeits, please contact the Currency Department of the National Reserve Bank phone 24 -057.
